14. REQUIRED Materials: Please submit the following with your application.

- A. A minimum 500-word essay that includes the following:
 - a. A paragraph introducing yourself and explaining your connection to DICP to the scholarship committee
 - b. A paragraph about your specific academic program, your current progress (how long you've been in the program so far if applicable), and why you chose it
 - c. A paragraph on where you see yourself five years from now
 - d. A paragraph on why continuing education matters to you
- B. Copy of your completed FAFSA or a copy of your Student Aid Report (SAR) for the upcoming semester you are applying for. Do not submit an old FAFSA or SAR.
- C. Proof of admission and registration. This can be a copy of your admissions letter if you have not started classes yet or a copy of your class list for the upcoming semester.
- D. *For Previous Recipients Only – A copy of your grades from the last term you received a Steve Johnsen Scholarship. Incomplete or failing grades DO NOT disqualify you from receiving a scholarship – you are still eligible. Transcripts help DICP record your progress and determine the best supports for scholarship recipients.
